Election/Restrictions

Applicant is reminded of the election of species requirement made in this application. Claims 4-9 were previously withdrawn from prosecution; claims 4 and 8-9 are generic claims depending from allowable claim 1 and have been added back into prosecution. Claims 5-7 claim the connector is a torsional spring which is interpreted as reading on the embodiment shown in figure 5 and, possibly, is not supported nor enabled by the specification. Claim 1 claims the connector is "rigid" which conflicts with claim 5 claiming the connector is a spring which is flexible. Additionally, it is believed that the torsional spring would have to be rigidly attached to the frame to properly operate which conflicts the language, "the connector is rotatable about the substantially horizontal leg." Upon allowance of this application, claims 5-7 must be cancelled.

Additionally, new claims 23-29 are withdrawn to a non-elected species having similar limitations to at least original claims 8-9 which were withdrawn according to paper No. 6, dated 8/27/01.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-3 and 8-9 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
